

IMAGINE THE WORLD DIFFERENTLY.

L'Arche Cleveland is a faith-based community of homes where adults with and without developmental disabilities share life together. Join L'Arche Cleveland as an Assistant and support adults with developmental disabilities in their homes and in the community.

What you'll do:

- Support daily life in the home: meals, transportation, cleaning, and required documentation
- Assist Core Members with personal care, dressing, appointments, and community events
- Strengthen communication skills and gain direct, hands-on experience with adults with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities
- Build relationships across abilities and grow your own interpersonal skills
- Be part of a supportive, inclusive team
- Maintain required trainings and certifications (paid for and provided by L'Arche Cleveland)

What We're Looking For:

- High School Diploma or GED
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Valid Ohio Driver's License with a good driving record
- Willingness to support the spiritual life of members in a faith-based community
- A caring heart and sense of responsibility towards helping others

Why L'Arche?

- Meaningful, people-centered work
- A chance to be part of something larger than a job
